Bodie Nagle Updates Firm Name, Hires New Attorneys & Expands Offices

(Towson, Maryland) February 11, 2010 -- Effective January 4, 2010, Bodie, Nagle, Dolina, Smith & Hobbs, P.A. changed its name to Bodie, Dolina, Smith & Hobbs, P.C. The name change came as a result of its partner, John J. Nagle III being appointed to the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, of whom we are most proud. Before his Investiture, Judge Nagle stated, "I am proud that my former firm has positioned itself as a leader in the Baltimore legal community. I give it all the best wishes for success going forward. The talents and collegiality of my partners is something I will sorely miss."

The Firm is pleased to announce the association of Jeffrey P. Rogyom. Jeff was formerly at Ober, Kaler, Grimes & Shriver. Mr. Rogyom will continue his work in Estate Planning, Tax Planning and Audits, Business Transactions and Business Planning.

The Firm is also pleased to announce the employment of Steven D. Link. Mr. Link is a recent graduate of the University of Baltimore School of Law. Mr. Link will work in the area of Consumer Bankruptcy.

The Firm has expanded its regional practice to include Western Maryland. According to Managing Partner, Winn C. Friddell, the firm will concentrate its Western Maryland practice on Family Law, Consumer Bankruptcy, Employment and Worker's Compensation Law and Serious Personal Injury. Says Friddell "We are excited about the growth and direction of the firm."

Bodie, Dolina, Smith & Hobbs is a full service law firm with offices in Towson, Reisterstown, and Hagerstown Maryland. Bodie, Dolina, Smith & Hobbs, P.C. provides representation throughout Maryland in Civil Litigation, including insurance defense, toxic tort defense, including asbestos and lead paint, nursing home defense, family law, estate planning, bankruptcy, business planning, tax and land use. The Firm was founded in 1957 by the late William F. Mosner and Gordon G. Power.
